THE HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE K.C. BHANU

WRIT PETITION NO. 15424 OF 2005

ORDER:

Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Pleader for Home appearing on behalf of the respondents.

It is the case of the petitioner that the respondents are acting on the fabricated medical certificate in collusion with each other. This Court in exercise of its jurisdiction under Article 226 of the Constitution of India cannot decide as to whether a particular document is a colluded one or not. It is also the grievance of the petitioner that the Station House Officer has not conducted the investigation in accordance with the provisions of law and therefore, she lodged a report to the Superintendent of Police who is the highest authority in the district to supervise the investigation of the Investigating Officers. The Superintendent of Police has come to the conclusion that the investigation done by the Station House Officer is on correct lines.

If it is the case of the petitioner that the investigation is not in accordance with law, her remedy is otherwise. The writ petition is devoid of merits and it is accordingly dismissed.
